Poisoned Pen Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Dot unfolded the note. He says that his married couple will look after the divine Miss Fisher. I'll leave out a bit. Their name is Johnson and they seem very reliable. Phryne got the door open at last. She stepped into the hall. I think he was mistaken about that, she commented. Traveling at high speed in her beloved Hispano-Suiza with her maid and trusted companion Dot, her two adoptive daughters Jane and Ruth, and their dog Molly, Phryne Fisher is off to Queenscliff. She'd promised everyone a nice holiday by the sea with absolutely no murders, but when they arrive at their rented accommodation that doesn't seem likely at all. An empty house, a gang of teenage louts, a fisherboy saved, and a missing butler and his wife seem to lead inexorably toward a hunt for buried treasure by the sea. Phryne knows to what depths people will sink for greed, but with a glass of champagne in one hand and a pearl-handled Beretta in the other, no one is getting past her. A most charming, sexy, independent, and candid heroine; clever, literate dialog; and closely woven plotting. -Library Journal starred review of Murder in Montparnasse Kerry Greenwood won the Crime Writers Association of Australia Lifetime Achievement Award in 2003. She has written eighteen books in the Phryne Fisher series with no sign yet that Miss Fisher is hanging up her pearl-handled pistol.
