Aaron and Erica s Garden, her most recent publication is the result of many questions and problems with which we are faced. The book presents stories from the bible narrated in a manner pertaining to today s world. In January 1999, a few days shy of his twenty-first birthday, Christopher Michael committed suicide in a haze of depression, self-loathing, and drug addiction. He left behind a loving family, which is still trying to understand what happened to this promising young man, and why. Evocative poetry, alternated with short autobiographical vignettes written from Christopher s point of view, as if in his own voice, reveal a soul...
