It always feels like the type of thing you only see on TV, until it starts happening. You might try forcing yourself to think that you are watching a horror movie, only to realize that it is happening in your face. As it happens, there is one thing that stays in the back of the mind - how is this going to end? While there are others who have cheated death and told stories of moments like these, not everyone is so lucky. But, putting luck aside, knowing just how to act during the moment might be...
