Jackson, of Georgia, to Ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman: With Explanatory Papers The purpose of this pamphlet is to enable me to distribute correct copies of the following papers: 1. My remarks to the Confederate Veterans, at Macon, October 26th. 2. My interview with an editor of the Atlanta Constitution, touching those remarks, published on the morning of October 29th. 3. The attack made upon me by Ex-Senator Thurman, at Columbus, Ohio, on the evening of November 6th. 4. My note, evoked by that attack, addressed to the Atlanta Constitution, November 7th. 5. Judge Thurman's communication of November 10th to the Associated Press. 6. My open letter to him of the same date. It is proper to state that my letter was not written several days before its publication, as was erroneously telegraphed by the Associated Press. Not a word of it was penned until his failure to make prompt recantation of his slanderous charges had satisfied me that he was not the man I had taken him to be; and...
