

Molly Warner: School Reporter (Paperback)

By Dan Kilday

Pegasus Elliot MacKenzie Publishers, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Molly Warner, a sixth-grade student at Robert K. Howard Middle School, had a wide reputation for being a gossip. If something was happening, she knew all about it and would share it with anybody who was within earshot of her. It even led to a new school policy that the teachers privately referred to as The Molly Warner Rule . Rather than punishing her, the school principal places her on the newspaper staff where she puts her skills to good use. With her journalism teacher's help, she learns the importance of a free press and strives to be a great reporter. When strange things start happening at school, Molly resolves to find the real story behind what is going on and who is to blame. Little did she know what she would uncover and the journey it would take her on.
