PETER Loves Joan-Mulligan s Bar By M.K.Ware A Multicultural story set in a contemporary urban environment in 1988 Ultra conservative low crime Cincinnati, Ohio. One question will enter your mind as it did Peter s. Has the time stood still? Peter And Joan-Mulligan s Bar, is set in a contemporary urban environment, and is a fictitious account of Peter, Joan, and Loretta, interacting with one another humorously, and sometimes even painfully while overcoming the intertwined web of obstacles that they encounter throughout the story. Peter and Joan are African American, met and got married when she was taking a trip to the 1988, Kentucky Derby. Peter was the Gazzelle Company bus driver. They were both from New York City, where they returned, and relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio. Since college, Peter has worked for a firm as one of three accountants prior to leaving it for the relaxation and freedom of the road. He maintained the same upper middle class style that he and his engineer father enjoyed together before his death. He lost his mother at birth. While Joan came from a poor background, in which her nurse Mother is the sole breadwinner, and her alcoholic father seldom held a job. Once in Cincinnati, they find an apartment, Peter applies for a job with the local Metro bus company, while looking in the classified, following leads of other employment, he is called by the Metro company. Peter s compassion sensed a fragile side of Joan, and he subconsciously vowed to protect her with his own life. This promise soon caused their life to become intertwined in an emotional roller coaster. Peter is laid off while he and the union grieve a situation....
