HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 196 x 126 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An extraordinary memoir from a man in his nineties who remembers everyday life in a North London now long gone: the hardships and deprivations of a life of poverty but also the resourcefulness and fortitude of a community determined to survive between the wars. He describes the drinking and merrymaking, the poverty and unemployment - and the villainy. With relish he relates how youthful high spirits and a refusal to accept the hardship of the times...
