A Book That Can Multiply Your Mental Strength For Success This is what you learn from the book: Calmness is a rare quality in human. What is calmness and what it is not. A calm person is a well-planned person. A calm person is ready to face any hurdle in life. Calmness is Self-control. Be cool and collected when your effort fails temporarily. When a tongue whips you. Hurry is not a good way of life. Hurry is an enemy to calmness. The tremendous influence you can exert. You have the power for both good and evil. We can naturally feel and sense a person's personality immediately. Let's us look at some lines from the book: 1. Calmness comes ever from within. It is the peace and restfulness of the depths of our nature. The fury of storm and of wind agitate only the surface of the sea; they can penetrate only two or three hundred feet, below that is the calm, unruffled deep. To be ready for the great crises of life we must learn serenity in our daily living. Calmness is the crown of self-control. 2. Man to be great must be self-reliant. Though he may not be so in all things, he must be self-reliant in the one in which he would be great. 3. The honest, faithful struggler should always realize that failure is but an episode in a true man's life, never the whole story. It is never easy to meet, and no philosophy can make it so, but the steadfast courage to master conditions, instead of complaining of them, will help him on his way; it will ever enable him to get the...
