Not illustrated. 1907 Excerpt: . the maximum marks obtainable at the six competitions: -- The judges at the competitions included representatives of the principal buyers of Irish butter in Great Britain, as well as of Cork, Limerick, and Belfast. Four judges, representing different markets, acted at each competition. A high standard, based on the quality of the best butter sold in the markets of Ireland and Great Britain, was adopted in judging. On the occasion of each of the first five competitions held in the year, a limited number of Managers of Creameries registered under the Department's scheme for improvement in the management of creameries, were admitted to view the exhibits, after the judging had been completed. The judges directed the attention of the Managers to any pronounced defects which might have been noticeable, and subsequently the exhibits were examined in detail by the Managers, under the directions of one of the Department's Inspectors. The reports furnished to the Department by the judges at this year's competitions express considerable satisfaction with the quality of the exhibits at the competitions held in October, September, August, and early in July. At these competitions only a few exhibits were considered of inferior quality, the majority being of good average quality, while some exhibits might be classed as excellent. The exhibits, however, at the competition held on the 27th July, and to a lesser extent at the competition held on the 2nd June, failed to show as satisfactory a standard as might...
