Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 268 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Bob Hubers transparent honesty and faithful obedience to God shine through in his first book, From American Dream to Gods Destiny. Bobs journey from computer-whiz and businessowner, to life of service with his family in an orphanage in Mexico, will inspire and encourage readers to believe that God has a destiny for their own lives, and that stepping into that destiny brings true fulfillment. Interwoven with the Hubers journey, is the moving and bittersweet story of Juan--the Mexican boy who was destined to become their son. From American Dream to Gods Destiny is a story of love, faith and surrender that will stir you to uncover Gods call for your own life. I know that Bob and his family will find a special place in your heart--as they did in my own. Deborah Porter Editor, FaithWriters Magazine Coordinator and Editor, FaithWriters Writing Challenge. Bob Huber is a full time missionary along with his wife and children in Northern Mexico. Bob holds bachelor and master degrees from Krannert School of Management at Purdue University and had a successful career in business before God called him to the foreign mission field at age 33. Bob worked as the controller of a manufacturing company after college and later started a payroll software company in his garage. The business grew rapidly and still continues to grow today. Believing that it is Gods will for their lives, the Hubers left their home and families and went to a poor orphanage in Mexico where they helped care for more than 100 children. They later served as the directors of a new orphanage they helped found, and continue to reach out to needy children and youth in Mexico.
