Reviews

The publication is easy in read better to understand. It is writter in basic words and phrases rather than hard to understand. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about if you question me).

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Leonidas: A Poem Mr. Glover, the author of the celebrated poem of Leonidas, was born in London, and was the son of John Glover, Esq. an eminent Hamburgh merchant, who married Miss West, sister of the Right Honourable Richard West, Lord Chancellor of Ireland. Mr. Glover's uncle being in that high situation, it was originally intended that he should be brought up to the law; but the Lord Chancellor dying when his nephew was very young, the plan was altered, and he was brought up to his father's profession. Mr. Glover, by a lady he married (Miss Nunn) of the county of Essex, and with whom he received a considerable fortune, had three children; a daughter, who died young; Captain Glover, who died in the service of his country off the island of Jamaica, commanding his Majesty's ship Janus; and Richard, his surviving son, who served in the last parliament for the borough of Penryn, in Cornwall. He received the whole of his education, under the Rev. Daniel Sanxay, at Cheam school; a place which he afterwards delighted to visit; and sometimes attended the anniversary held of late years in London, where he seemed happy in relating his juvenile adventures. At this seminary he distinguished himself by the quickness of his progress, and early began to exhibit specimens of his poetical powers. As a merchant, he soon made a conspicuous figure: but his commercial affairs did not occupy his whole attention; he still found leisure to cultivate the study of poetry, and continued to associate with those who were eminent in literature and science. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of...
