Turbulent Money (Paperback)

By Todd Sheldon

Todd Sheldon, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . What do cycles, cosmic cycles, filters, instruments and pictures have to do with understanding the changing direction of your money? What do sheep, Rockefellers, gangsters, billionaires, presidents of countries, bishops, and the IRA have in common? How does turbulence, corruption and manipulation influence changes to stocks, commodities and overall investing? With anything in life, whether trading and investing your money, navigating ocean waters in your boat, climbing mount Everest, all require a serious amount of research and evaluation, the risk to reward. Turbulent money examines this fascinating phenomenon of risk and how to understand the factors that influence the ups and downs of your investments including corruption, high-frequency trading and robots. Todd looks closely into the markets and how to get above average returns using various tools and tips while accounting for cycles and how the past forecasts a path to the future. He delves into the secret of visualization and describes how he witnessed first-hand corruption including the use of hired assassins and how this creates changes in the valuation of currency. The financial market system without gainsaying, is a very lucrative...
