Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 312 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Forced to abandon their homes, a Native American Alliance with their allies struggle to preserve their independence. A corrupted world government has required all individuals to submit to micro chip and advanced computerized registration as a means to more effectively regulate the worlds commerce - and population. In their efforts to accomplish this, the self reliant independence of the People of the Nations and their Allies are viewed as a threat, due to their ability to provide for and protect themselves without the increasing costs and interference of outside regulatory restrictions. But expanding intergalactic ambitions need a completely dominated Earth as their base. So war is declared against them, and when it becomes apparent that they cannot be crushed, they are pushed back until they are driven off of the planet. Sustaining their Constitutional Republic and faith in their Supreme Creator through the conflict, the Native Alliance launches their battered Nation into space, where they are soon befriended by a fleet of Lightships who know their Creator. These bionic starships are living, intelligent creatures commanded by merging with the hearts and...
