Pimpernel Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. I m not dead yet, writes Clare Hastings to her daughter, Calypso, who will one day inherit Clare s beloved cottage garden in the Berkshire Downs. In fact I woke up this morning feeling quite chipper. I glanced out of the window . . . and thought about you. And felt a frisson of panic. What if I were to be struck down before elevenses on the B4009? I realized that I needed to leave you a handbook about the garden. For you the countryside is a pathway from the car park to the door, to be completed on the run. But I m not giving up. The daughter of writer and gardener Anne Scott-James, Clare too was a latecomer to gardening, daunted by Latin names and nervous around plants. Then she realized she wasn t and never would be a `proper plantsman and that it didn t matter. Since then she has explored the joys of gardening and now after many years experience of her own cottage garden, Clare shares her gardening life notes with Calypso.
