Excerpt from Roman Antiquities, and Ancient Mythology: For Classical Schools Rome was founded by Romulus and a colony from Alba Longa, 753 years, as is commonly thought, before the birth of Christ. The people were divided into three tribes, and each tribe into ten curi. The number of tribes was afterwards increased to thirty-five. The people were at first only separated into two ranks; the Patrician and Plebeian, but afterwards the Equites or Knights were added, and at a later period, Slavery was introduced - making in all, four classes: Patricians, Knights, plebeians, and Slaves. The Patrician order consisted of those families whose ancestors had been members of the Senate. Those among them who had filled any superior office, were considered noble, and possessed the right of making images of themselves, which were transmitted to their descendants, and formed part of their domestic worship. The Plebeian order was composed of the lowest class of freeman. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
