Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1904 Excerpt: . IV. Diminishing the Sparrow Plague meets the want which is greatly felt, and your voice being raised against poisoning will do good. I propose to send samples to the Agents-General of South Australia and New Zealand, where the Avian Rats are special pests; also to Mr. McKinnon, for the benefit of the Republic of Uruguay. I think one or two would be well placed in the hands of the Department of Agriculture, U.S.A. I suppose that in an obviously much-needed matter like this it is hopeless to expect our Board of Agriculture to do anything. But I have, besides the above, several centres of work which I hope to make use of. I do hope that your book will have the success that it deserves, and be of infinite benefit. I like it thoroughly--its pretty dress, the good figures and readable type on strong paper; it is a National gift, in your good and authoritative working up of the subject, and I feel myself honoured to be associated with you in the good work and the pummelling, which I dare say we shall get more of! With my very kind regards and remembrances, believe me, Yours very sincerely, Eleanor A. Ormerod. CHAPTER XVII LETTERS TO MR. MARTIN, MR. GEORGE, MR. CONNOLD AND MESSRS. COLEMAN AND SONS Elm-bark and Ash-bark beetles--Roman remains--Bladder plums--The Silver Y-moth. A Number of interesting and important fresh subjects are here concisely treated in letters addressed to various British inquirers. These are...
