WONDERLAND REVISITED AND THE GAMES ALICE PLAYED THERE (PAPERBACK)

Coisceim, Ireland, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Cynthia Brownell (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excuse me, said Alice to a small grey Mouse in red shorts. What precisely is a custard race -- Did Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking-Glass leave you yearning for more? Join Alice on a new journey and meet the extraordinary inhabitants of Wonderland, both familiar and new. If your bed turned into a boat, and you found yourself drifting off in an entirely unexpected manner, how would you find your way home? The Jack of Diamonds says it s Alice s own fault for being fast asleep -- had she slept more slowly, she wouldn t be so far from home! The Red Queen, the Mah-jong Dragons, even the Red King s Gamekeeper, all seem helpful enough at first -- but things never quite turn out the way Alice hopes! Brimming with word-play, nonsense verse, and a cast of eccentric characters each with a unique and peculiar logic, this tale is faithful to the style of the originals, picking up the pen where Lewis Carroll put it down. Be swept away on a torrent of humour and madness. Alice is back!.
