Excerpt from Excerpt From Third Biennial Report of the Department of Labor and Industry State of Maine: 1915-1916; With the Reports of the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation for the Year 1915 and 1916 The Act of 1911 which created the Department of Labor provided for an annual appropriation of four thousand five hundred dollars 500) exclusive of the salaries of the com missioner, the deputy commissioner and the stenographer. In 1911, when the Department was created, there were in exist ence only a few labor laws. In 1914 the duties of the Depart ment had increased on account of the passage of additional laws to such an extent that the appropriation of four thousand five hundred dollars was not sufficient to allow the departmental work to be completed as the law provides. Con sequently, toward the latter part of the year, the Governor and Council allowed the Department an additional amount of money. With this allowance, we were able to complete and have printed the report of 1914 and to continue necessary inspections. In view of these conditions, I recommended to...
