Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Who would disagree that September 11, 2001, and its aftermath constitute one of the great turning points in human history? On that bright autumn day, a piercing SOS was heard that continues to reverberate around the globe like the back-ground waves from a cosmic explosion. Since then, we have been introduced to perpetual war and shocking crimes against humanity. We exist in a polarized and deeply wounded world. Such developments have brought us to a crossroads, a point at which a vital decision must be made. The choice before us is the most consequential ever: shall individuals driven by arrogance of power, and capable of destroying everything, be allowed to have their way - or will the majority of humans opt for the opposite: collective life shared in the spirit of oneness and love? To the degree that we yearn for a life of wholeness, harmony and peace, to that degree will it be necessary to see through lies and deceptions, hypocrisies and manipulations in order to avoid heading blindly into a disaster. At the same time, we must grow large in mind and heart, for the renewal that could be ours must be inclusive of all people and life. Moreover, if we hope to build an entirely different tomorrow, we can only do so by refashioning ourselves in the most humane of images. Which means dedicated inner work, the kind most of us try to avoid - until something harrowing, a truly staggering event, gives us no other choice but to turn our gaze from the outer to the inner. We clearly have reached such a point, for the trauma of 9/11 was so profound and the consequences so devastating that humankind...
