But, though you speak so jocosely about death now, had you not more serious thoughts of it, when it seemed to stare you in the face, last night? Tom. Why, Jack I must confess, I had some dreadful thoughts about going to hell; and if I had been alone, I should have said my prayers. - But pray how did you feel? Jack. Quite happy, and resigned to whatever might befall me. Tom. Happy in a storm! Why, I have been many years at sea, but never before heard of a man being happy in a storm. - Pray, what makes you happier than other people? Jack. The Bible, with the help of Gods Holy Spirit, Tom; these show me the way to true happiness and solid peace, and tell me that God is a present help in time of trouble. Tom. I always thought the Bible a book to make one melancholy. Jack. That s a great mistake, Tom; on the contrary, it affords every motive to true cheerfulness, and...
