

Timberland Legacy (Paperback)

By Ronnie G Anderson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Timberland Legacy (86,860 words) is a story which reveals that not all billionaires are monsters of greed. The primary character is an author who personally does book research by living the part that he is writing about. This current project is about a mobster left for dead and returns only to find out that he is without his memory. In an effort to get into the part he sits outside of a diner holding up a sign that says just hungry. A waitress takes pity upon the bum with no memory and in an act of kindness offers for him to be with her in his time of trouble. Oops! Love follows and soon he leaves only to return as his real self with a proposal of marriage. She accepts and the romp into fortune begins. When a plane crash leaves her the only heir to his vast billions, her real character is seen and she sets about to share her wealth with her friends and their family. What emerges are the four love stories that surround the main...
