Xulon Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This Christian school handbook is meant for the faculty, staff, and administration of Christian schools to create a positive, healthy, and successful environment. The Christian school meets many unique obstacles, and the Christian School Management Association wants to help institutions of learning address them with proven strategies. Their mission is to help schools teachers and boards of trustees encourage their students to find Jesus. They do this through partnership, leadership, and transformation. In the book they address Christian trusteeship and authority, accountability, strategic financial management, servant leadership, the role of the board of trustees, the Christian student, and the Christian teacher. The book provides guidance on building positive school culture, effective bylaws, productive administrative plans, gratifying goals, and developed education standards. Christian education, school handbook, school guidance, all-inclusive education handbook, mission-driven education.
