An authoritative source of information . that could never be ignored . direct, with no mincing of words or empty praise . a work that attests to intensive research and broad knowledge, sensitive but without sentimentality or obfuscation. Marinus Wiechers, Professor Emeritus of Constitutional, International and Indigenous Law and former principal, Unisa. . History owes her a favor for writing this book. I enjoyed it immensely. Peter Sullivan, former editor of The Star and Group Editor-in-Chief, Independent Newspapers, South Africa. REVIEWS Even in the broader literature, no book exists that covers these events together in one volume and certainly not with anything approaching the depth and first-hand insight that Papenfus marshals. Pik Botha and his times is precisely the sort...
