In June, 1831, an Act was passed establishing the Boston and Providence Rail Road Corporation, with the usual powers and privileges. Under this Act, the Corporation claimed the right to construct the road through that place, notwithstanding the statute for the protection of the Sepulchres of the Dead. After considerable delay and various remonstrances and proceedings on the part of the Proprietors, the corporation proceeded on the last Monday in June to construct the road through the Burying Ground, and to remove the remains of the dead by a sort of forced consent of the relatives. The line of the road passed obliquely through the ground, cutting it into two irregular and unequal parts. In the course of the excavations (about 30 feet in width) about 150 bodies, or their remains, were removed, or rather attempted to be removed, for many of them were so much decayed that nothing but a few bones could be found. Such a removal is a mere mockery. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an...
