How to Handle a Woman by Sandra Kitt features Geneva Springer, a petite woman pushing forty, who adores her nephew, Sean. Having saved his life when he was a toddler, they have a special bond. When Sean involves her with his school auction, the successful bidder receives Geneva s professional services as an interior designer. Reed Fairway, a sexy thirty-three year old computer science teacher at Sean s school, is just the man to suit Eva. Reed has won the auction for Eve, but when he doesn t show up to their first meeting, Eve is insulted and wants to call it off. At the persistence of her nephew, they finally meet. Soon, there is no denying that Reed and Eva like one another, but will their age difference keep them astray? Tell Me Something Good is by Deirdre Savoy. When forty-three year old graphic artist Alberta Al Kendall wants a man, she isn t shy about letting him know--even if the man in question is the twin brother of her cousin s...
