Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 50: April, 1950 To begin with, you had to use a few figures, but they were revealing ones. The size of the student body was dropping oft - that was obvious: In September, 1948, there had been 3200 undergraduates in the College. In September, 1949, there were 2985. In February, 1949, there had been 2916; now there were 2740. Some who left had graduated, and 71 of the 164 who completed requirements for their degree elected to take their diploma in February at a simple ceremony in Faunce House Theatre. Their space in June, frankly, would be welcome, for 712 more would be ready for degrees then - 876 for the year. All American colleges, it seemed, were gradu ating their largest classes in history. Next fall, with 650 Freshmen admitted, we could look to a College of 2570, which would be 2300 in February. We were getting there, and at the eventual 2200 we would have again a College of manageable size. That, the Dean assured us, was on a more personal basis, when a name could be something more than a name on an ibm card with the human warmth that meant. Another good thing the Dean noted was the improve ment in scholarship. The all-college average of a year ago had risen from to and not because the Faculty had gone soft, either - you could credit a good Senior Class with that performance. It was interesting, moreover, to watch the scholarship of the fraternities. A year ago seven fraternities had exceeded the all-college average; this year seven fraternities did the same - and not the same seven, either. Some, which had been regarded as...
