CULTURE AS COMFORT (PAPERBACK)

Pearson Education (US), United States, 2013. Paperback Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Presents culture and identities as continual processes of doing, rather than as things people possess. This text encourages readers to understand how we learn culture so early in life that we come to view it as a possession more than as our groups particular ways of thinking and doing. We do the same for identities such as gender, race, nationality, and religion because these are...
