Abhinav Publications, New Delhi. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. 252pp. This is the first monograph on Yasovarman of Kanauj, dealing comprehensively with all aspects of his history and career. It also critically surveys the obscure political history of northern India and gives a vivid account of the social and cultural life of the period. Shinha, Professor and Head of the Deptt. of Ancient Indian History, Patna University. The author "is able to reconstruct the course of events in greater detail than before, by a careful study of recently published inscriptional evidence and from literary sources which hitherto have been little noticed in this context. Thus he produces a very well reasoned analysis of the subject which forms a very positive contribution of...
