

Nitro Nights (Paperback)

By W S Di Piero

Copper Canyon Press, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. With language that s as simple as it is musical, Di Piero sets dazzling moments amid plainsong. --The New York Times Book Review Di Piero s poems throb with the intensity of urban life, buried anger, and old griefs that still ache. --San Francisco Chronicle Di Piero hopes to evoke something of the true mystery of present and recalled experience, and his poems powerfully enact this desire. --The Philadelphia Inquirer W.S. Di Piero marries a streetwise, working-class sensibility to an intellectual rigor and precise language in poems that stare down depression, failed love, and urban nightlife. In a fast-paced, half-cracked/half-sane style reminiscent of bebop solos, Di Piero forges masterful poems that keep it close, loose, and sweaty, and restore life s intensity while showing where real hope might be found. From Only in Things : Some days, who can stare at swathes of sky, leafage and bad-complected whale-gray streets, tailpipes and smokestacks orating sepia exhaust, or the smaller enthusiasms of pistil and mailbox key, and not weep for the world s darks on lights, lights on darks, how its half-tones stay unchanged in their changings, or how...
