Excerpt from Address on the Education and Literature of the Women of Turkey: Delivered Before the World s Congress Auxiliary; Saturday, July 22, 1893 Ladies: - When I was but a little child I visited for the first time this beautiful country, which celebrates now the fourth Centennial of its discovery. On revisiting it this time I greet especially the ladies who have contributed to the success of the Exposition - the mem bers of the Board of Ladies and their worthy President. I was in Constantinople when the El Fomento de las Artes of Madrid and the Choral Societies Euterpe of Barcelona appointed me to represent them at your wonder ful Exposition. I accepted the honor with delight and I was preparing for my voyage here when I received a confidential letter from a friend of mine, a member of the Board of Ladies, requesting me to get for them some information on Woman s Education in the Orient. I immediately began to search for authentic documents about this, but in vain; there are no statistics in Turkey. I applied to his Excellency Zuhdi Pasha, Minister of Public Instruction, who could not furnish me with the information I wanted. Nevertheless I was not discour aged, but went on in my investigations, and I am happy to say that my perseverance has not proved unsuccessful. Information about European, Greek, Armenian and Israelite schools in Constantinople being more easy to get, I have applied to the managers of those different institutions, and they gave me all the information I asked for.
