

We Remember the Battle of Britain

By Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw

Ebury Publishing. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, We Remember the Battle of Britain, Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, "I was talking and laughing with a school friend in the street when suddenly there was the eerie wailing notes of the air raid siren filling the air. I can remember that our laughter stopped straight away, and I recall feeling chilled and scared. Doors were opened and people came out of their houses looking up to the sky. It was a Sunday morning on a beautiful summer's day with blue skies and really warm sunshine. But within minutes our lives had changed, and the child in me had gone, never to return". (Mrs Mary Earle, Kent). After the surrender of France to Germany Churchill announced that 'the Battle of Britain is about to begin' and on 10 July 1940 the Luftwaffe began bombing ships in the English Channel in readiness for a full air assault on the south of England. In August, German aircraft were attacking coastal airfields, moving inland to attack radar bases, further RAF airfields and aircraft factories, until finally turning their attention to London and other major cities. But Hitler had underestimated the determination of the RAF and...
