Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Child Care and Child Welfare: Outline for Study From institutions that are offering courses for the training of vocational teachers of home economics there has been a very general demand for source material which could be used as the basis of instruction in child care and child welfare. This demand comes because of the emphasis that is now placed upon child care as an important part of the vocational training for home making. The Federal Board for Vocational Education is charged with the duty of making studies, investigations, and reports which will be of assistance to the States in the establishment and conduct of vocational schools and classes. When deemed advisable, these studies and reports may be made in cooperation with or through other Government departments interested in similar lines of work. One of the chief functions of the Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor is to make studies and investigations in the field of child care and child welfare. Through a cooperative arrangement between that bureau and the Federal board for Vocational Education this bulletin has been prepared. The bulletin deals with the important phases of childhood and is published with the hope that it may serve to stimulate the right kind of instruction in child care as a part of the training for vocational teachers of home economies. These outlines are not prepared for use directly as lessons. They are not in lesson form, but are published as source material from which the instructor may make her own course. Many of these outlines will be found to overlap, and it may be that certain subjects are not presented, or at least...
