R. Corporation: March 31, 1869 The reductions made in local fares, near the close of the preceding year, and the reduced rates of fare and freight received on the business from the Vermont Central Road under the new arrangements which took effect at the commencement of the past year, have materially affected the receipts during the year. Increase of travel has compensated only in part for the reduction of fares, and consequently there has been a falling off, in passenger receipts, from the previous year. But, notwithstanding, the business of the year, on the whole, has been favorable. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
