Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A person who loves is also a healer. Should there be limits to this love that heals? Have you ever wandered the streets at night, or at midday, to cure love pains? Love pains are not easily cured. No drugstore carries the remedy and no pub dispenses the healing waters. Nor is the curative process taught by professors in universities. It seems we are alone with our love pains, and yet they are so easily cured. We all have the capacity to heal and often we are touched by the forces of this healing, but rarely do we open our hearts and hands. We shy away from the process of healing for a thousand excuses, all may seem important though they close the door to the greatest principle in the universe, the Principle of Universal Love. The book contains a selected story from my series of 12 novels, The Lodging for the Rose. The series is large, because its core subject, universal love, is far from being trivial in scope, though it is rarely recognized as a critical element of civilization. Within the series numerous stories are staged that focus on specific aspects of the gigantic theme. Since a number of the stories are sufficiently complete in themselves to stand on their own, I have launched a project to make some of the unique vistas more accessible as individual works. In the resulting Kaleidoscope Project certain types of vistas can be grouped together by their theme. The Sex and Sacrament Project emerged from this background. The combination of Sex and Sacrament as a theme was chosen as a daring project to gently highlight the fact that in spite of the...
