Back Bay Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 352 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.3in. x 1.0in. The terrific . . . moving, poetic, immersive, multifaceted, and thought-provoking book (Publishers Weekly) that will open your eyes to the night. A brilliantly starry night is one of nature's most thrilling wonders. Yet in our world of nights as bright as day, most of us no longer experience true darkness. Eight out of ten Americans born today won't ever live where they can see the Milky Way. And exposure to artificial light at night has been cited as a factor in health concerns ranging from poor sleep to cancer. In his gorgeous debut, THE END OF NIGHT, Paul Bogard travels the globe to find the night, blending personal narrative, natural history, health, science, and folklore to shed light on darkness. Showing exactly what we've lost, what we have left, and what we might hope to regain, he attempts nothing less than a restoration of how we see the spectacularly primal, wildly dark night sky. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
