EMOTIONAL PRISONS - PRISONS

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 214 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Has this thought crossed your mind, How can I soar like an Eagle if Im trapped like a Rat If this or something similar troubles you, it is very possible that you are in an Emotional Prison! Just like a four walls, barbed wire, locked up and armed guarded jail, it is possible for us to put ourselves in a prison where our innermost being is wedged in behind our own feelings. Over time a sense of a deep and internalized oppression grabs us, our lives feel like they are out of control. We start to act in violation of our beliefs and values. The emotional hole we are in gets deeper as we dig our way into what seems to be a bottomless pit. Eventually we arrive in a place where our emotions control us, we are in prison! Our behaviors have become obsessive or compulsive, and we may have developed addictions. Relationships around us are deteriorating and may have crumbled into the dust. Unknowingly we are hurting the people who we love or those that love us. Our walls have become things like anger, approval-seeking, or attention-getting. Our prisons barbed wire is the messages that the world sends us, like you are not good enough. The armed guards are our friends and family who try to keep us trapped with their manipulation or coercion. We are firmly planted and sealed in our own unique and personal emotional prison. If what you have just read describes you or a person you care about, dont despair, there is hope! As surely as an individual can get into an emotional prison, he or she can get out. The Emotional Prisons series of books will...
