

A Treatise on the Powers and Duties of Supervisors in the State of New York Containing Copious References to the Statutes, and the Leading and Late

By Amos Girard Hull

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 42 pages. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1869. Excerpt: . . . CHAPTER III. t FEES OF OFFICERS. Assessors fees. One dollar and fifty cents for each day actually and necessarily devoted to the service of the town. Laws of 1860, ch. 305. In cities and some of the villages, the compensation varies; in some of them they receive a salary. Clerks of the polls and of the board of registry. One dollar and fifty cents for each day actually and necessarily devoted to the purposes of election. Id. Clerk of the commissioners of excise. Three dollars per day for services actually performed while the board of excise is actually in session. Commissioners of excise. Three dollars per day for services actually performed. Commissioners of highways. In any town where there is but one such officer, the sum of two dollars per day, and in towns where there are more than one commissioner, one dollar and fifty cents for each day actually and...

READ ONLINE
[5.4 MB]

Reviews

Very good e-book and beneficial one. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I am effortlessly could get a pleasure of looking at a written book.

-- Alphonso Beahan

This created ebook is wonderful. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You may like the way the author compose this pdf.

-- Frederic Lang