Excerpt from The Journey to Heaven: Illustrated in Five Sermons; Together With Other Discourses, Appropriate d104s, Hymns, Etc The author of this small work has, for a long time, felt an anxious desire to take an active part in the fulfillment of the command of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who said, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature and also said, Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. It is a blessed privilege to go where Jesus goes, and to converse with souls who are under the in?uence of the Holy Spirit, and endeavor to persuade them to go to the fountain of eternal life, where they may drink and never thirst again. With great joy the author has sometimes felt that he could leave home, dear friends and relatives, to go into the destitute portions of the world, and tell the story of the dying love of Jesus to poor sinners; thus pointing them to the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. But health and circumstances have hitherto prevented. He has, therefore, prepared this earnest and candid appeal to his fellow-mortals, bound to a long eternity from whence there is no return, with a prayerful hope that it may be instrumental, under God, in leading some never-dying souls to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thus be eternally saved.
