Even of feelings themselves. In London, Emma Tate's life is collapsing around her: her job is in jeopardy, her parents have been killed in a car crash that she blames herself for, and her husband's business is failing. Seeking respite, Emma, her husband and two of their friends hope to find some temporary peace in a country house. But Roxton is a place of strange secrets. What is the reason for the closure of the mine that had been the life-blood of the town? What riddles are hidden in the stained glass of the church? What mysterious force is at large? Emma's desire to uncover these secrets will lead her and her companions into a nightmare from which there will be no waking and to a meeting with their own most twisted and vile desires.
