Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Shall Our Common School Be Destroyed?: An Argument Against Perverting the School-Fund to Sectarian Uses I am grateful to you, my friends, for the pains you have taken to come on this inclement night, - some of you for the second time, to listen to a discussion of the question which has been announced for our consideration. We cannot overestimate the gravity of this question, either for the Church or for the Commonwealth. It is not in any sense a Theological question as between different schools of religious belief. I have no controversy whatever in this discussion with forms of faith. Neither is it an Ecclesiastical question as between different modes of administration of Church affairs. Within the sphere of this discussion, it is of no moment by what particular form Christians may organize and govern themselves. Neither is it a Political question as affecting the measures of parties or bringing political parties as now constituted under criticism and review. Yet it is a question of the profoundest significance both for Religion and for Public...
