In sight of these troublesome days of international turmoil, it doubtless seems anomalous to suggest that the hook is mightier than the sword. But unquestionably the hook wields a far more potent influence for peace, happiness and beauty - the higher and more sacred aims of life - and in this respect concededly the hook is mightier than the sword. The Wide Call. Nothing in recent years has so widely attracted the interest and attention of women throughout the world as the present popularity of crochet work. It has invaded every field of human interest and endeavor. Women of every nationality, of all ages and of every station in life - the busily rushed woman as well as the woman of leisure time - all are absorbed by the fascinating combination of work and recreation found in crochet work. The popularity of crochet work is due to many causes, but primarily to the fact that while the work is of absorbing interest, giving vent to such a vast range of artistic expression, it is, at the same time, pre-eminently utilitarian. For centuries back, women have been engaged in the execution of hand-made laces, each century showing a marked increase of interest in and demand for this character of lace, until, at the present time, hand-made laces occupy a distinctly unique position in the art world. The limitless range of useful and artistic articles to which crochet lends itself has made its popularity come to stay, and it is destined to become more and more extensive every year. The Why. This little booklet does not purport to cover the limitless field...
