Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Link, Vol. 6: March, 1948 John Scott Douglas (So Long Remembered, page 3) is a new contributor to The Link but by no means new to the writing world. His travel in 17 foreign countries has provided him with many interesting characters and backgrounds for his stories and has led him to such unforgettable experiences as exploring a pre-Incan city in the Peruvian Andes with the help of hired Quechua Indians. Another adventure took him to the bottom of the ocean off the mid-California coast. He says if any work were ever to tempt him away from writing it certainly would be deep-sea diving. Joe E. Brown (Really - I Am a Serious Guy, page 7) needs no introduction. This article gives the reader a glimpse of the great humanitarian heart which led this man to the battlefields in an effort to bring a bright spot to the dreary days of combat. Mr. Brown lost his own son in the war effort, but even this great sorrow did not prevent his untiring service to the men in the armed forces. Chaplain Claude E. Strait (After Two Years in Japan, page 11) brings to us a report compiled from data collected for almost two years. His article attempts to portray the significance the occupation has had upon Japan two years after the surrender. We are happy to present this material to Link readers in the belief that a better understanding of the situation in Japan will be gained. Harold Heifer (The Sight of Beauty, page 15) will be remembered as the writer of The Face of Guilt which appeared in our January issue. Arthur Holsinger (Walk in the Valley, page 18)...
