Cool Containers (Paperback)

By Adam Caplin

JACQUI SMALL, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Cool Containers pumps up the action in pots. Here is an innovative approach to container gardening, the first book to combine the cool style of modernism with plantings that really work. Cool Containers explains where, how and what to plant in a variety of containers. The book is split into six sections, covering everything from design and materials to site, season and care. In Design Adam Caplin looks at style, whether crisply modern or informally chic, focusing on elements such as scale, texture and colour. Materials explores a range of exciting and unusual planters in every material, from metal to stone, and features planting recipes for carefully selected container shapes. Site offers trailblazing ways to use plants that will suit the location and its environmental conditions -be it hot and sunny, windy and exposed or cast in deep shade. Adam then explores how understanding a location's particular set of constraints will enable you to choose the perfect container and plant species that thrive in it. There are ideas for all sites, whether kind or cruel -even for a dark passage between two houses, out of...
