Closeted gay teenager, Chase Nelson, is the victim of relentless bullying. Today, the bullying went too far when high school jock, Kyle Worthington, assaulted Chase. What happens next is nothing short of tragic and will leave your heart racing and filled with grief. I wrote this story with a hope that people, less exposed to the hate and violence that plagues the LGBT community, will realize what kind of hatred exists, and that it needs to stop! We are all people. We all face the struggles of life. My dream is that we all face it together, united as one.
