The conduct of all the officers has been satisfactory, excepting one assistant warder, who has been fined, and the governor reports most favourably of them. The male prisoners have generally behaved well, and discipline has been maintained without corporal punishment or use of irons. Some of the females received from Birmingham gave trouble at first, but at present they are more orderly. One hundred and twenty-five prisoners were placed in punishment cells; 56 received dietary punishments; 78 loss of marks and stage privileges. The surgeon reports the clothing and bedding to be sufficient, and the alterations in the dietary to be very successful. The per-centage of prisoners receiving extra diet for the year ending March 1877 was 74; the per-centage for the year ending March 1879 is 2. The general health of the prisoners has been most satisfactory. The chapel...
