Must be Rufus, she thinks, until she notices him sound asleep on top of her bed. She goes back downstairs and looks around the living room but sees nothing out of the ordinary. She looks around the kitchen and does not find anything or anyone strange either. -Perhaps the cottage is catching up with me and my creaky bones, - Diane chuckles to herself. Climbing the staircase to go back to her bedroom, Diane hears another creak, and it's louder this time. The English village, Apple Mews, is an idyllic community where bad things never happen. Though recently, long-time resident Diane Dimbleby found herself smack dab in the middle of a murder scene on the village green. The widow of a Scotland Yard police detective,...
