ROADS AND PAVEMENTS: JUNE 20, 1917 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Roads and Pavements: June 20, 1917 On February 13-15, 1917, a meeting was held at the University of Texas, under the auspices of the Engineering Department, for all engineers interested in municipal work. There is at present no organization of civil engineers in Texas which devotes any considerable part of its time to city engineering problems. This meeting was held because it was thought that there was a real need for an organization in this line of work, and the response from engineers over the state was very gratifying. It is intended that a similar meeting shall be held at the University of Texas each year, and all city engineers, their assistants, and others interested in road construction, sanitary design and construction, and the various other branches of municipal work, are most cordially invited to attend. Engineers are also invited and urged to present papers or discussions on any line of municipal engineering upon which they have been engaged or in which they are particularly interested. Requests for papers on particular lines of work, if sent in early enough, will be turned over to experts engaged in the line of work desired, and their discussion invited. Ample time will be given to discussion of papers presented, as there is probably greater benefit derived therefrom for the individual members than from the reading of the papers themselves. Some little confusion, due to class schedules, was noticeable during the meeting, but arrangements in this respect will be perfected. The following papers on various subjects connected with roads and pavements were presented at the February meeting, and are issued here in bulletin form for the advantage of those who could not make...
