Excerpt: . . . 9 and net neutrality mandates on an industry that is already aggressive. Government should not dictate how a current successful industry should run, and the Carterfone principles should not be extended to today's competitive wireless industry. Congress must continue to promote policies that foster innovation in wireless technologies and not allow States to set policies that will stifle competition. It is critical that we do not enact regulatory burdens that hinder an industry responsible for providing consumers choice in telephony. I thank you, Mr. Chairman, and look forward to hearing from our witnesses today, and I yield back my time. Mr. M. The gentleman's time has expired.
