Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Want to read a heart-warming, enchanting tale that will be a treasured addition to any library? One that can be enjoyed all year long but especially during the Christmas season? One that is sure to become a family favorite year after year? Nicholas Kristo, by Rick Koestler, is an inspiring, fictional account of a year in the life of St. Nicholas and his mission from God. The author weaves a beautiful story with authentic details to give the reader a glimpse into the heart and motives of one of the world's most beloved figures. Nicholas Kristo takes you on a journey to northern Italy in the 1500s when a simple man is appointed by God to bring inspired gifts to the needy--gifts that impact both spiritually and physically. Good and evil are personified with insightful, inimitable character development throughout. Stoke the fire, pull the chair up close, and get comfortable--this book will keep you turning page after page. Do you believe? You will! Make this book a gift to yourself or someone you know who needs to believe today. Rick Koestler, father of two daughters and grandfather of six, currently resides in Wayne, New Jersey. He is a computer artist, writer and minister who enjoys teaching and serving at East Seventh Baptist Church, located on Manhattan's lower east side. East Seventh is a mission church dedicated to serving the community in a host of important ways. Rick attended Northeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. While Nicholas Kristo is his first full-length novel, he has also written The Crooked Stick, Chasing Elmer Gantry and is currently working on Christian Vigilante. The author's ultimate goal is to create stories that glorify...
