Xulon Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What does the mother of a teenage girl talk about with her daughter? What subjects and challenges do teenage girls face today? What do I teach my daughter now that I am a young mother myself? Written by a mother who has raised her daughter to adulthood, here are the letters she wrote to her daughter over a period of ten years, expressing her heart, her love, her desires, and her wisdom. Enter into their personal relationship, and read how a mother taught her daughter about life, love, and God. This is one mother's heart and love for her daughter, written down and preserved so her daughter would never doubt her mother's care, concern, and love for her as she grows into womanhood. p.p1 p.p2 p.p3 span.s1 span.Apple-tab-span Janis Kristiansen was born in Seattle and raised in Washington State. She is married to her husband of over thirty years, Washington State Representative Dan Kristiansen, who serves in the legislature as the Washington State House Minority Leader. They have two grown sons, a daughter-in-law, and a daughter in college. They also helped raise a third son as they call him, starting when he was in high school. Janis has served in various capacities, helping women for years; in Mothers of Preschoolers (MOPS) when her kids were young, for a few years as a pre-marriage counselor with her husband, and as Family Life group leaders in two churches. She currently is a small group leader of a high school girls bible study, and serves as a MOPS mentor. She has a bachelor of science degree in the College of Forestry from the University of Washington. For her professional career, she is the Vice President...
